

Figure 2.3: Right ascension and declination are measured on an imaginary sphere that surrounds the earth, on which the stars have fixed positions.